NOTICE TO DEFENDANT OF FILING AN UNLAWFUL DETAINER CASE

Case Number

LLTVA2604011

Alexander Miller

3549 N. D ST.,
SAN BERNARDINO, CA 92405 (BACK ROOM)

Pursuant to CCP 1161.2, this notice is to inform you that an Unlawful Detainer action has been filed in the Superior Court as indicated above, naming you as a party to this action. Access to the court file, index, register of actions or other record is not permitted until 60 days after the complaint is filed except: 1) to a named party or their attorney, or a person who provides the name of at least one plaintiff and one defendant, the address-including unit, space or apartment number to the premises; 2) Provides the clerk with the name of one of the parties in the action or the case number and is able to establish with proper I.D. that he/she lives at the premises or pursuant to an Ex Parte order showing of good cause therein.

This case has been assigned to Judicial Officer: Margaret V Beare
Department:

NOTICE TO ANY RENTERS LIVING AT: 3549 N. D ST.,
SAN BERNARDINO, CA 92405 (BACK ROOM)

This Notice may mean that your home has been recently sold in foreclosure and the new owner plans to evict you. You should talk to a lawyer NOW to see what your rights are. You may receive court papers in a few days. If your name is on the papers, it may hurt your credit if you do not respond and simply move out. Also, if you do not respond within ten days of receiving the papers, even if you are not named in the papers, you will likely lose any rights you may have. In some cases you can respond without hurting your credit. You should ask a lawyer about it. You may have the right to stay in your home for 90 days or longer, regardless of any deadlines stated on any attached papers. In some cases and in some cities with a "just cause for eviction law," you may not have to move at all. But you must take the proper legal steps in order to protect your rights.

"IMPORTANT NOTICE FROM THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA – YOU MUST TAKE ACTION TO AVOID AN EVICTION: As part of the state's COVID-19 relief plan, money has been set aside to help renters who have fallen behind on rent or utility payments. If you are behind on rent or utility payments, YOU SHOULD COMPLETE A RENTAL ASSISTANCE APPLICATION IMMEDIATELY! It is free and simple to apply. Citizenship or immigration status does not matter. You can find out how to start your application by calling 1-833-430-2122 or visiting <http://housingiskey.com> right away."

HOW TO GET LEGAL HELP:

The State Bar of California certifies lawyer referral services in California and publishes a list of certified lawyer referral services organized by county. To locate a lawyer referral service in your county, go to the State Bar's internet website at www.calbar.ca.gov or call 1-866-442-2529.

If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. See the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court, the San Bernardino County Bar Association (909) 888-6791 or Legal Aid Offices (888) 455-4257 or (951) 368-2570.
